

HOST A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION WITH YOUR ORGANIZATION

CHANGE WON'T HAPPEN WITHOUT YOUR VOICE

- You fill the room typically groups of 10-20 work best.
- Conversations last about an hour from start to finish.
- United Way brings the questions, moderator and note taker.
- The host only needs to supply the room and a group of vocal advocates.

United Way wants to hear what you and your employees think about our community. Community Conversations are hour long moderated discussions designed to help United Way better understand the needs, hopes and desires of our community.

- Just provide the meeting space and the participants and United Way will do the rest.
- United Way staff and volunteers will lead participants on an hour long conversation around creating opportunities for a better life.
- Results of the conversations will be compiled into a public report and used to help United Way develop needed intervention strategies.

YOUR INPUT IS VITAL IN HELPING TO MAKE SURE UNITED WAY IS FOCUSED ON OUR COMMUNITY'S MOST IMPORTANT ISSUES. Upon completion of the Community Conversations participating organizations and individuals will receive a copy of the written report. Participants will also be given the opportunity to engage in other community initiatives.
